TWO GOOD MEN

Claimed by the Grim Reaper in One Day.

Mr. James C. Moore, of Near Town and Mr. Wm. T. Bronaugh, of Pembroke.

Mr. James C. Moore, one of the best citizens of Christian county, died of pneumonia Wednesday afternoon in the 56th year of his age. Mr. Moore was born in this county in 1847, and was a son of James W. Moore, one of the most prominent members of the Masonic order who ever lived in this county. He grew to manhood on his father's farm and received a liberal education. He became a successful planter and in 1877 was married to Miss Bettie Campbell, second daughter of B. S. and Maria Campbell. His wife and five children survive him. The children are Jas. C. Moore, Jr., a civil engineer with the L. & N. railroad, at Evansville; Miss Mary Moore, Ben and Gus, of this city, and Milton, the youngest, still in school.

Mr. Moore's death was shockingly sudden. He was sick only a few days. He was a man of commanding presence and fine physique. More than six feet in height and of athletic build, he was the very picture of health and strength. He was a member of and elder in the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, and his life was that of a consistent Christian and a most useful man and citizen.

The funeral services were held at one o'clock yesterday afternoon and the burial took place in Hopewell Cemetery later in the afternoon.

W. T. BRONAUGH,

One of Pembroke's Best Men Passes Away.

Mr. William T. Bronaugh, of Pembroke, died Wednesday afternoon of heart disease. He had been in failing health for some time. He was about 60 years old and was born in Louisa county, Virginia. He came to this county when a young man and had lived here nearly forty years. He was twice married. Two or three children by his first marriage live in the vicinity of Pembroke. Mr. Charlie Bronaugh is his son and he leaves one daughter, Miss Lillie Bronaugh. His second wife survives him.

Mr. Bronaugh was a prominent and highly esteemed citizen, and a member of the Baptist church at Pembroke.

He owned a fine farm in the suburbs of Pembroke, and lived in a handsome residence in the town of Pembroke. He also engaged largely in the tobacco business until his health began to fail a few years ago. The interment took place at Pembroke yesterday.

More Divorce Suits Filed For Spring Term.

Mary A. Ruffin has sued for divorce from James H. Ruffin. She further states that she knew not of his intentions until she received a letter from him, written in Louisville, stating that he would not return. He is now in Illinois. In addition to a divorce, plaintiff asks the court to grant her $50 per month alimony.

Charles Wooldridge sues for a legal separation from Sylvia Wooldridge. The petition states that they were married Sept. 5, 1899, and lived together as man and wife only five days, when the defendant of her own accord, abandoned plaintiff.

HOLLAND'S OPERA HOUSE

Damaged by Fire Yesterday Afternoon.

A fire in the interior of Holland's Opera House yesterday afternoon at 3:30 destroyed the piano and a portion of the front of the stage, before the fire was controlled by the department.

The Stag Saloon underneath sustained some damage from water.

Mr. Holland estimates his loss at $300, which is uninsured, except the piano.

The fire, it is supposed originated from a cigarette stump, probably thrown behind the piano.

The show to-night will not be interfered with.

LOOSE SALES

Every Day This Week and Prices Are Good.

Loose sales of the weed on the floor have been conducted every day this week by Wooldridge & Co., and a large quantity of tobacco has been disposed of at good prices. The kinds sold were common lugs and common leaf and prices ranged from $3.50 to $7.50.

The inspectors' report shows receipts for the week of 340 hogsheads, and for the year, 1540 hds. Sales for the year, 160 hds.

Starts the Ball.

Mr. Claude R. Clark, the hustling young grocer, is announced as a Republican candidate for circuit court clerk of Christian county, subject to the action of his party. Mr. Clark is a son of Esq. H. B. Clark, of Gracey, and has long been prominent in the councils of the Republican party and is very popular. He is a successful business man and if he takes his usual hustling qualities into politics he will be a hard man to beat in the race.
